Mending Wall

- Robert Frost

Introduction:

Robert Frost is one of the famous American poets of the twentieth century. As a true lover of nature, Frost chooses nature as background to write poems. "Mending Wall" is the first work in Frost's second book of poetry 'North of Boston' (1915). His experience in farming when he lived in England for a few years would have inspired him to this poem.

Damaged wall:

The poem begins with a doubt that there is a mystical element which hates the wall. So, the wall gets damaged to the wall while they hunt rabbits. They do not replace or repair it so far, no body has witnessed while the damage occurs.

Hope is thing with feathers

Introduction

"Hope is the thing with Feathers" is a lyric poem. It is an extended Metaphor, transforming 'hope' into a bird that is ever present in human soul, direction at the time of our difficulties. It is an master piece of spiritual expression about hope and its impact on human mind.

Significance of hope.

Emily has presented 'hope' as an ever singing bird within the soul of a person. She portrays that hope is a golden quality of human beings. that only 'hope' can help us to remain positive during extreme situations.

Power of the Song.

The bird is noted for its song. It sings a word-less tone and encourage us to move further. It is a silent companion. The poetess compares the human struggle with the storm and explains clearly that hope serves as a beacon of light in that storm. she openly says that hope has helped her to survive in the world.
