WOMEN'S WELFARE COMMITTEE INTERNATIONAL WOMENS DAY (07/03/25)

Time: 12.20 pm to 1.30 pm

Venue: Bosco Hall

AIM:

Women's Day celebrations recognize women's achievements, promote gender equality, and empower women in all aspects of life. These events honor women's cultural, social, economic, and political contributions while raising awareness about their rights and challenges. They serve as a reminder of the ongoing fight for gender parity and the need to uplift women from diverse backgrounds. Through events, discussions, and activities, Women's Day inspires positive change, fosters solidarity, and advocates for a more inclusive and equitable society where women can thrive and reach their full potential.

OBJECTIVE:

Women's Day celebrations honor women's achievements, raise awareness about gender equality, and promote inclusivity and empowerment. They recognize progress while acknowledging ongoing challenges. Through events, discussions, and initiatives, these celebrations inspire positive change, foster solidarity, and provide a platform for meaningful dialogue on global women's issues. Ultimately, Women's Day aims to celebrate successes, advocate for gender parity, and work toward a more equitable and inclusive society where all women can thrive.

Orientation Program On How to Overcome Daily Challenges For Girls Students

Aims

This Orientation program will focus on equipping female students with valuable skills and strategies to effectively navigate and conquer the various challenges they face on their daily basis. The program aims to empower girls by providing them with practical tools and knowledge to overcome obstacles, build resilience, and foster a positive mindset. Through interactive workshops, informative sessions, and engaging activities, the program seeks to create a supportive and encouraging environment where girls can learn, grow, and thrive. Participants will have the opportunity to gain insights, share experiences, and connect with like-minded peers, ultimately enhancing their self-confidence and personal development. The overarching goal of the program is to inspire and empower girls to take on challenges with courage, determination, and a strong sense of self-belief.

Objectives

The objectives of this orientation programme are designed to provide guidance on effective strategies for overcoming the various daily challenges that female students encounter. The programme aims to equip girls with the necessary skills and knowledge to navigate the different hurdles they may face in their educational journey. By participating in this programme, girls will have the opportunity to enhance their problem-solving abilities and resilience, enabling them to thrive academically and personally. Through a combination of workshops, discussions, and activities, the program will foster a supportive and empowering environment where girls can share experiences, learn from each other, and build a strong network of peers. Overall, the program seeks to empower girls to face challenges with confidence, determination, and a positive mindset, ultimately helping them reach their full potential.

WOMEN'S WELFARE COMMITTEE Report on Orientation Programme for Girls Students

Topic: How to Overcome Daily Challenges for Girls Students

Date: 09.10.2024

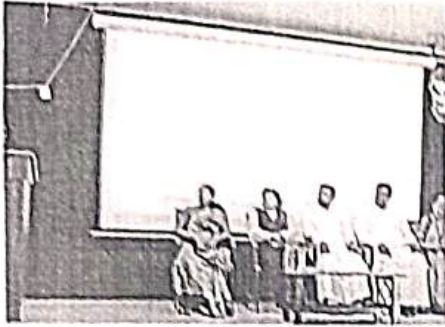

Venue: Bosco Hall

Time: 12:00 pm to 1:35 pm

The Women's Welfare Committee meticulously organized an enlightening orientation programme specifically tailored for female students on the auspicious date of 9th October 2024 at the esteemed DB Hall. Commencing the event with a soulful prayer song set a serene and welcoming tone, paving the way for V. Blessy, a distinguished scholar pursuing her II MA English, to deliver a heartfelt and inspiring welcome address. It was indeed an honor for the attendees to be graced by the presence of Mrs.S. Manimegalai, the revered Coordinator of the Women's Welfare Committee and the esteemed Head of the Department of Chemistry, who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

The sessions proceeded seamlessly under the expert guidance of Dr. P. Neela, an accomplished life coach, author, counselor, and the visionary founder & CEO of the prestigious Bodhizen Academy. Dr. P. Neela's rich experience and profound wisdom illuminated the minds of the students, imparting invaluable insights and practical knowledge. The session was meticulously curated to empower young girls with the essential tools to overcome the myriad challenges they face on a day-to-day basis. Dr. P. Neela's profound discourse on effective time management strategies and nurturing personal growth resonated deeply with the eager audience, equipping them with practical tips and techniques to navigate life's complexities with confidence and grace.

Women Empowerment Programme

Aims

The aims of women's empowerment encompass a broad spectrum of goals and initiatives dedicated to enhancing gender equality. These include ensuring that women have the opportunity to pursue their ambitions and fostering a supportive environment in which they can thrive across various aspects of life, such as education, employment, leadership, and decision-making. The focus is on breaking down societal barriers and stereotypes, promoting equal opportunities, challenging gender norms, advocating for fair treatment, addressing systemic inequalities, and empowering women to exercise their agency and voice. Ultimately, these efforts aim to create a more equitable and inclusive society for all genders.

Objectives

The objectives of women's empowerment include promoting gender equality, providing women with opportunities for education and economic independence, ensuring their participation in decision-making processes, raising awareness about women's rights, and creating a supportive environment for women to thrive in all aspects of life. Through empowerment initiatives, the aim is to eliminate discrimination, overcome barriers to women's progress, and foster a society that values and respects women's contributions. Ultimately, this leads to a more equitable and inclusive world where women have the freedom and agency to fulfill their potential and lead fulfilling lives.

Report on Women Empowerment Programme for Girls Students

Date: 24.03.2025

Venue: Bosco Hall

Time: 9:00am to 10:40 am

The Women Welfare Committee, dedicated to uplifting and supporting women in the community, meticulously organized a transformative Women Empowerment Program on the auspicious date of 24/03/2025. The esteemed chief guest for the event was Mrs. Umadevi, a renowned and talented writer of mesmerizing cinematic songs that have touched the hearts of many. In her captivating and thought-provoking speech, she eloquently shared her own inspiring journey of resilience, creativity, and empowerment—resonating deeply with all those in attendance. Mrs. Umadevi's words echoed through the halls, igniting a spark within each listener and urging them to embrace their inner strength and pursue their dreams with unwavering determination.

The program was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impact on all who were fortunate enough to partake in this empowering experience. The Women Welfare Committee's unwavering commitment to promoting gender equality and empowering women shone brightly through this remarkable event, signaling a new era of progress and unity within the community.
