REPORT

A ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON PHENYL & SOAP OIL PREPARATION. (SEIENTIA-2024).

OBJECTIVE OF THE EVENT : The objective is to make the participants learn the method and procedures to prepare phenyl and soap oil in order to create career opportunities for the students.

OUTCOME OF THE EVENT: The students learned about the method of phenyl and soap oil preparation through the demonstration, which expanded the scope of business opportunities for self-help.

BRIEF REPORT:

A special one-day workshop was organized on August 20, 2024, at Physics Lab by the Department of Physics in Don Bosco College, Dharmapuri. The program was attended by 30 students from B.Sc. and M.Sc. Physics and even staff members also participated in the preparation methods for phenyl and soap oil.

The workshop began with a prayer song. The Master of Ceremony was dealt by M. Sathish Kumar, III B.Sc. Physics, C.Sivasakthi, III B.Sc. Physics, also welcome the gathering.

The most honourable chief guest of the day was Dr.K.Anand, Principal of Don Bosco College, Dharmapuri. He highlighted the phenyl preparation in a simple and low cost method, to find a solution to facilitate a scop for business opportunity.

The demo of the phenyl and soap oil preparation was explained by our faculty Mr. M.Sekar, Department of Physics, Don Bosco College, Dharmapuri. The participants showed their interest during the demo session and were taught the fundamental of blending concentrations and making quality product. They were also provided raw materials to make a 1 litre of phenyl through hands on training.

Finally, Mr.S.Ramkumar, Head of the department of physics, Don Bosco College, Dharmapuri, concluded the workshop saying that with the right content and the excellent marketing strategies, it is possible to become a successful entrepreneur. Finally the vote of thanks was given by G. Judith III B.Sc. Physics.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS & DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS Report on National Level Workshop on Recent Trends in Solar cells

The National-level workshop on "Recent Trends in Solar Cells" was organized by the Department of Physics and the Department of Mathematics at Don Bosco College, Dharmapuri, on 22.01.2025.

Dr. V. Mohankumar, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics (SF), PSG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore, delivered a lecture entitled "Using Solar Power Effectively: Trends, Issues, and Future." The workshop began with a welcome address delivered by Mr. S. Ramkumar, Head of the Department of Physics, Don Bosco College, Dharmapuri.

Dr. K. Anand, Principal of Don Bosco College, delivered words of blessing. Rev. Fr. Christopher Alexander SDB, Vice Principal and Mentor of the Departments, also shared words of blessing and appreciation for the workshop.

Dr. V. Mohankumar's lecture focused on recent developments and future advancements in sustainable solar energy technology. He explained the principles, construction, and demonstration of dye-sensitized solar cells. Additionally, he provided an overview of solar cells, their modern applications for energy storage, fabrication methods, and the challenges associated with large-area dye-sensitized solar cells. He concluded by discussing the applications of solar cells in daily life. The session was highly interactive, with students engaging actively and posing questions to the resource person.

The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. R. Poongothai, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, Don Bosco College, Dharmapuri. The event was well-organized by the faculty of the Departments of Physics and Mathematics. The master of ceremonies was handled by M. Sathish Kumar from III B.Sc. Physics.

WORKSHOP ON GAME DEVELOPMENT USING PYTHON

III B.Sc. COMPUTER SCIENCE

The department of computer science organized a one day workshop on 6th August 2024. The theme of workshop was "GAME DEVELOPMENT USING PYTHON". The programme started at 09.00 a.m. with an invocation to the almighty through the prayer song. Prof S. Vadamalai MCA., M.Phil., B.Ed., HOD Department of computer Science Address the students and honoured the resource person. Followed by the resource person Mrs. Vaideshwari, M.Sc., Asst.Prof in Department of Computer Science handled the session. she gave an overview of python program features, how to download the python application and install into the system.

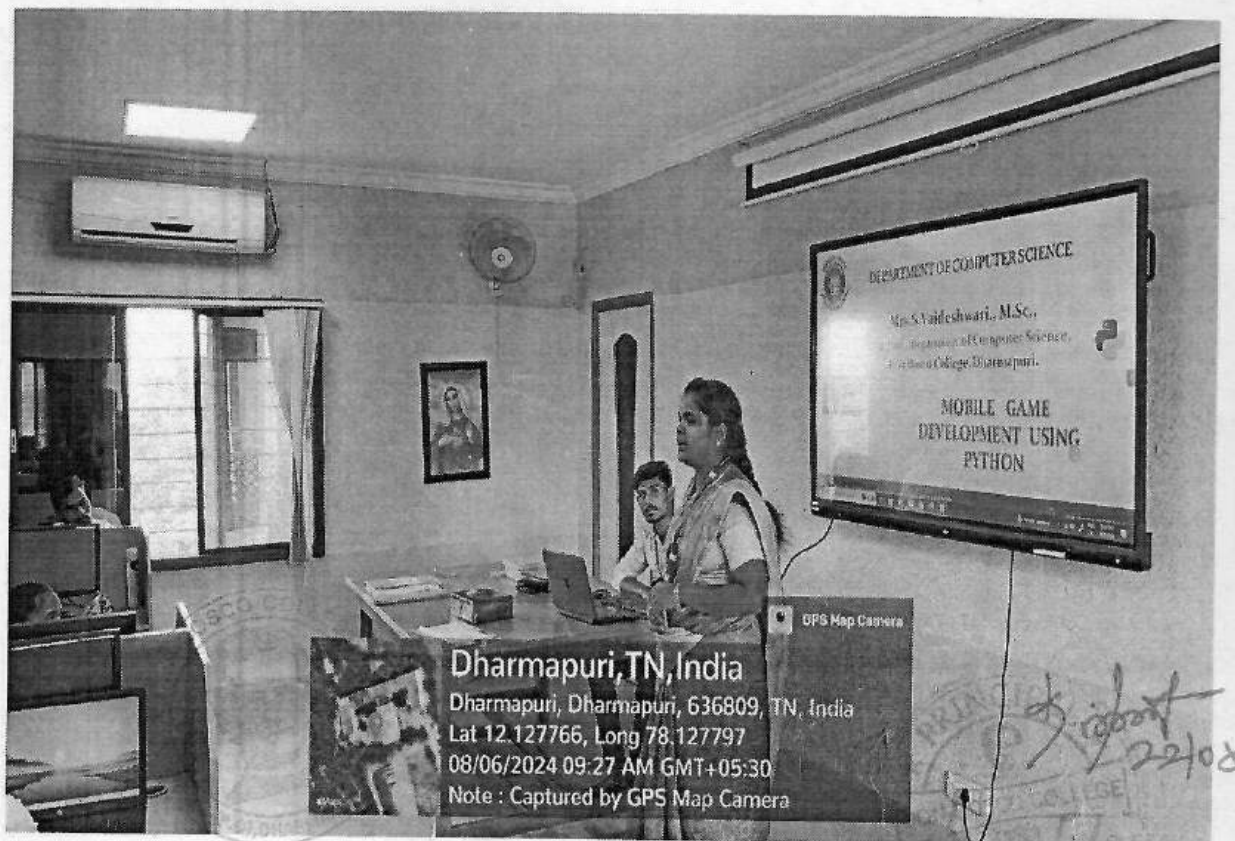

The students are shared a software by a portable bootstrap file and resources URL link to install and execute the python programs in both command line and IDLE environment. The entire programme was coordinate by the divine association president S.Vithya. The programme came to an end with a format vote of thanks. We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to our HOD Prof S. Vadamalai for providing this beautiful opportunity to organize this workshop.

Objectives:

- To get knowledge regarding new python languages.
- To utilize the open source methodologies for programming.
- To develop the project ideas on new era.

Report

Social change requires strong leadership, empathy, and inclusivity to create meaningful and sustainable impact in society. To enhance their understanding and practical application of these values, Master of Social Work (MSW) students organized a workshop titled "Empowering Social Change: Leadership, Empathy, and Inclusivity for Social Change" on 8th February 2025 at Don Bosco B.Ed. College, Dharmapuri. This workshop was designed to provide both first and second-semester MSW students with an interactive learning experience through group activities, competitions, and practical exercises aimed at strengthening their leadership and teamwork skills.

A unique aspect of the workshop was its emphasis on practical learning, where students actively participated in group discussions, competitions, and reflective feedback sessions. At the end of the program, each student had the opportunity to share their feedback with the resource person, making the event an interactive and insightful experience.

Activities undertaken

Circular

Department of Social Work is organizing the Workshop on "Report Writing Skills" for MSW students 10th September in order to enhance the documentation skills in the students in the students and to learn the proper method of documentation.

HOD

Aims

- ❖ To enhance the ability to prepare professional reports that effectively communicate social work interventions, findings, and recommendations.
- ❖ To develop clarity, accuracy, and conciseness in documenting client cases, community projects, and fieldwork activities.
- ❖ To improve understanding of different types of social work reports, such as case reports, progress reports, evaluation reports, and project reports.
- ❖ To strengthen analytical and critical thinking skills required for organizing information and interpreting data in reports.
- ❖ To familiarize participants with report writing formats and standards followed in social work agencies, NGOs, and government departments.
- ❖ To build competence in using appropriate language and ethical documentation practices while maintaining confidentiality and objectivity.
- ❖ To encourage reflective practice by helping social workers record their interventions and outcomes systematically.
- ❖ To promote effective communication and accountability in social work practice through well-structured documentation.

Objectives

- ❖ To enable participants to understand the structure and components of a professional report used in social work practice.
- ❖ To train participants in organizing information logically — from introduction to conclusion — in case reports, project reports, and evaluation reports.
- ❖ To develop participants' skills in writing clear, concise, and evidence-based reports that reflect professional standards.
- ❖ To familiarize participants with the use of appropriate formats, language, and referencing styles in social work documentation.
- ❖ To enhance participants' ability to analyze and interpret case data for inclusion in reports.

- ❖ To provide hands-on experience in drafting, reviewing, and editing reports through practical exercises.
- ❖ To improve accuracy and objectivity in recording observations, interventions, and outcomes.
- ❖ To strengthen ethical awareness regarding confidentiality, sensitivity, and truthfulness in report writing.
- ❖ To build confidence among social workers in presenting and submitting reports to supervisors, agencies, or funding bodies.
- ❖ To promote reflective and accountable professional practice through effective documentation skills.

Report

A workshop on report writing skills was organized by the P.G department of social work. The workshop was conducted in the class room, Don Bosco College. The resource person of the day was Dr. Robert Ramesh Babu, the Rector & Secretary of the college.

Reports are an integral part of social work profession. A report is nothing but an "account of information such as speech, writing, documentary, film, made with the intention of relaying information or recounting events in a presentable form". A social worker has to document every event that has happened in the form of records or reports. Hence it is very essential to know well about it. Which make the trainees to become an expert in documenting.
