Planned Objectives:

- To welcome the freshers
- To create a friendly atmosphere among the seniors and juniors
- To motivate the freshers to build a friendly relation between the management and students
- To build a sense of togetherness among the trainees

Introduction:

On 26th February 2021, the first – year social work trainees had a fresher's day celebration in Mama Margret Hall, Don Bosco College, Dharmapuri. It was organized by the second-year trainees and the faculty of social work department to welcome the freshers. The first – year trainees were warmly welcomed by the II-year trainees and the management.

Activities Undertaken:

- 1) Introductory Session:
 - Activities like passing the umbrella with music was played through which the juniors and seniors got to each other in a very fun and enjoyable way.
- 2) Dances and Songs were performed:
 - Various dance forms, were performed by the seniors.
 - Open stage was given to the juniors to let them share the talents.
 - Different songs were sand by the MSW trainees.
- 3) Games were conducted:
 - Games like bursting the balloons, plastic ball games.
- 4) Lunch was served and were enjoyed by all.
- 5) Plant saplings were distributed to the freshers as a sign of welcome to the MSW department.

Observation:

Trainees showed their active and effective response by their participations and planning. They were very excited and happy. All the trainees co – ordinated and co – operated in helping the other trainees and staff members. All enjoyed the company of each other.

Learning Outcomes:

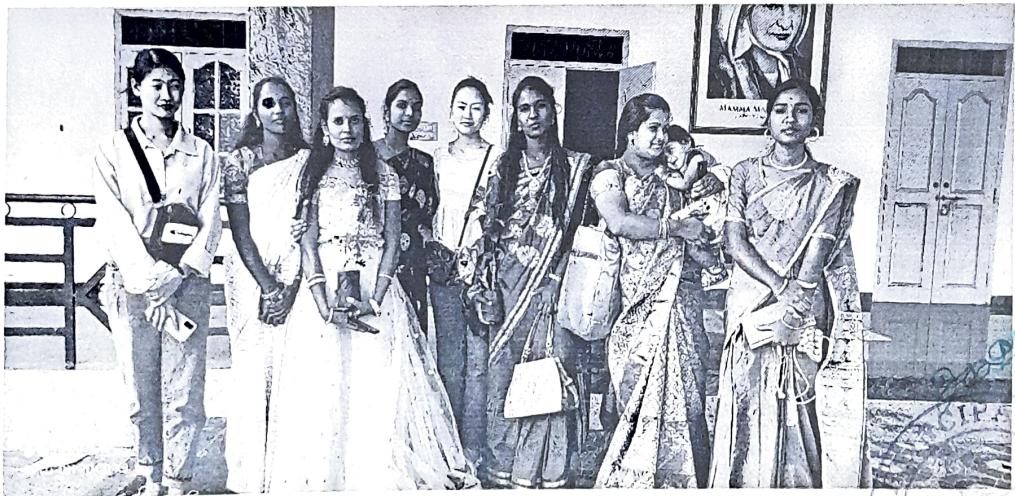

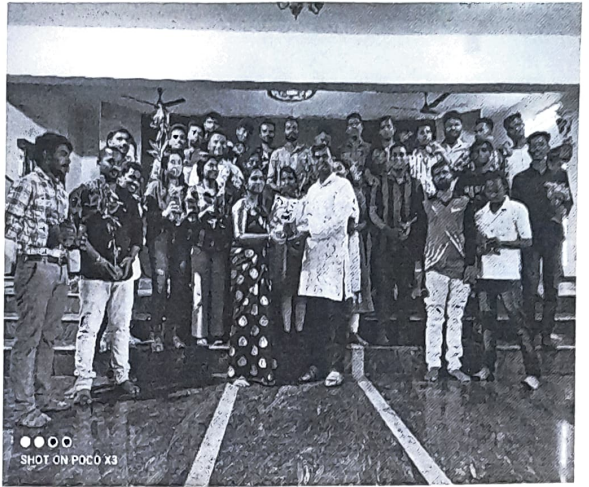

- 1) Trainees learned how to organized a programmed.
- 2) Trainees had activities with highlighted co – operative works.
- 3) Trainees learned the importance of team – building.
- 4) Trainees were more open to communicate with each other.
- 5) Trainees learn to utilize their skills.

Conclusion:

Such an amazing event could not have been successful without the help of each and every member present and without the active participation of I MSW trainees. The program was worth celebrating, it created a bond between seniors and juniors and most importantly a good bond between juniors and management.
